

Ann Ridge

Ann Ridge is currently a Ph.D. Candidate at The Chicago Theological Seminary (CTS) in Theology and Culture/Human Sciences and Ethics, focusing on child/human development and spirituality. She joined the Institute of Pastoral Studies (IPS) as an Adjunct Instructor for the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Chicago in 2016. Prior to her teaching, Ann worked for the State of Illinois for 31 years for departments and agencies including the Department of Commerce and Community Affairs, the Illinois Arts Council and the Department of Healthcare and Family Services/Medicaid. During those years Ann attended IPS, earning her degree in Pastoral Counseling in 2002, and licensed as a professional counselor in 2003. She is also a licensed art teacher for grades K-12 and students with disabilities.

Ann holds a BA in Fine Arts, Art Education, and Art History from Barat College, an MA in Arts Administration from The American University in Washington, D.C, an MA in Pastoral Counseling from the Institute of Pastoral Studies at Loyola University Chicago, an MA equivalent in theology from The Chicago Theological Seminary, and is currently in the final stages of her Ph.D.

Ann has a passion for sharing the love of God through her teaching, volunteer work with refugees and The Night Ministry and her church, as a pastoral counselor and her music. She performs locally in Chicago as a singer/songwriter and with her instrumental jazz group called The Irving Park Trio.
